Catarina Batista：Deputy Librarian of the Data Services Team, Catarina works for the Data Services Team at the Macau University of Science and Technology Library for close to 9 years. She has previously worked in the Cataloguing Department as well as for the Special Collection Project Global Mapping of Macau, before committing to Data and Reputation and also the Macau Intellectual Property Center. She holds a Master in Library, Archive, and Information Science from Universidade Nova de Lisboa, but is taking her second Master in Lusophone and International Public Law by the University of St. Joseph in Macau.